CORAM : HONOURABLE MR.JUSTICE R.S.GARG

Date : 17/08/2007

ORAL JUDGMENT

Shri Jay Amin, learned counsel for the petitioner; none for the respondent though served.

2. The petitioner-industry, being aggrieved by the interim order dated 29.4.2000 passed by the Presiding Officer, Labour Court, Surat in Reference [LCS] No. 509 of 1989 is before this Court under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, with a submission that the Court below was unjustified in deciding the issue against the interest of the petitioner.

3. The Reference relating to removal of the workman is still pending consideration before the Labour Court, therefore, it is not necessary for the High Court to interfere at this stage in its powers under Article 227 of the Constitution. If the Reference is answered against the interest of the petitioner, then, he can certainly raise the question which has been raised by him in this petition, in any petition, which he proposes to file against the final award. At this stage, I refuse to interfere but however with liberty aforesaid. The petition is dismissed. Rule is discharged. No costs. Interim relief, if any, is vacated.
